Auctioneer at Drouot Holds Extensive Auction of PCGS Certified Coins in Paris on May 31, 2011

Paris, France) – The first ever European auction devoted primarily to PCGS certified coins will be conducted at the prominent French antiques and collectibles auction house’s gallery

VV, Drouot (www.Drouot.com), in Paris on May 31, 2011.

Over 500 lots of world and United States coins certified as authentic, graded and encapsulated by PCGS Paris will be offered.

“We chose PCGS to grade this auction as it is the premier third-party, independent grading company recognized worldwide,” said Gaëtan Warin, who consigned his collection with Millon & Associates, auctioneer “commissaire-priseur” with Drouot. “With PCGS grading the true value of my coins can be recognized. The convenience of having my coins graded at the Paris office made this possible. I look forward to PCGS grading standards being applied to coins throughout the world.”

“Less than a year after opening the PCGS Grading Center in Paris, this auction is a very promising premiere,” said Muriel Eymery, PCGS Director of International Business Development. “Mr. Warin’s choice of hosting it at Drouot’s gallery room W, the prestigious French art and antiques auction place, will publicize even further the benefits of PCGS third-party, independent grading for serious European coin collectors. The French collector’s market-at-large is a key starting point for building a relevant database of prices for PCGS-graded French coins.”

“PCGS is very pleased with the support our Paris office has received from dealers and collectors throughout Europe. We are grateful to Mr. Warin for choosing PCGS to authenticate and grade his coins. Many of Mr. Warin’s coins are in exceptional condition and we expect them to receive spirited bidding in Quartier Drouot’s upcoming auction’, said Don Willis, President of PCGS.
